

What is my purpose for reading this story?

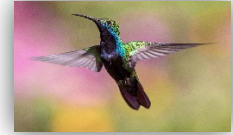

Look at the first few illustrations.

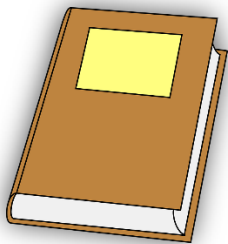

How do the illustrations give me clues about the setting and characters?

What is the genre of this text? Fiction or Non-Fiction

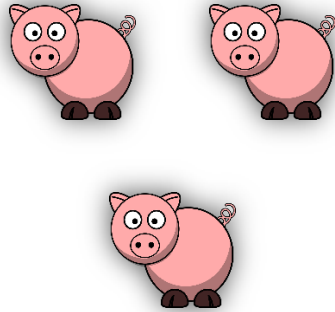

How do you know?

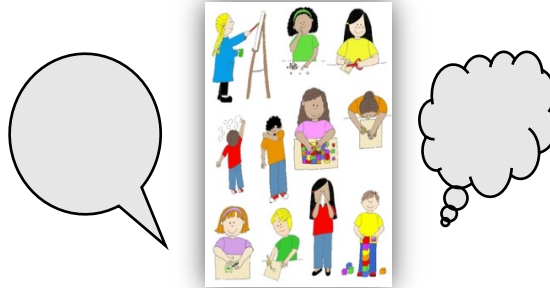

Does the title give me a clue about the story? If so, what?

Who is the story about?
Who are the main characters?

What are the character traits of the main characters?

What is the main character's problem?

What does the main character want to do about the problem?

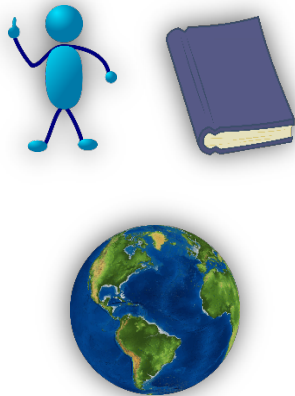

How does the character solve the problem? If the character hasn't solved the problem, how do you predict the problem will be solved?

What events happen as the main character is trying to solve the problem?

What connection can you make with the text?

What was the setting?
Time? Place? Did the setting change during the story? How?

What was the problem and how was the problem solved?

What did the main character learn? What lesson did I learn?

Why do I think the author wrote this story?
What were they trying to tell me?

What was my purpose for reading this story? Did I do my best?

